REAL ESTATE AGENTION of To

he Daily Standard.

Wednesday November 20, 1870

Of course, a legal gentleman, who, at great personal peril; made a dangerous voyage to the second settlement this side of the North Pole, to act as special advocate and glosser for the defeated candidate at Nanaimo, -and who on his return to this city found himself saluted as Terminus Obstructive Organ. We can afford to pity the organ, but the conduct of our Come-by-Chance Mayor we cannot overlook. Now, what are the facts of this case as they have come under our notice. The Would-be-Mayor was consulted in the first place about a resolution to appropriate $500, to explore a portion of Johnson Straits, to establish the practicability of crossing the railway there, in order to bring it to Victoria. Now, what was his answer? "Bring it in. I see no harm in discussing it.' That is step number one, in which Mr. Mayor de jacto countenanced the proposition. Subsequently he was consulted about calling a public meeting of the rate-payers. What was his answer to that proposition? It was this: "If The U. S. Mail Steamer the rate-payers will endorse the resolution, I see no difficulty. I'll look further into it,"—and he consented to the meeting being called. So far, we think that our great civic apostle, "born out of due time," was doing good service. These statements we have on the authority of those who "interviewed" His Worship on the subject. Now, what was done next? A well known citizen carried around a requisitior, and had it signed byseme eighty odd citizens-enough to snawer every purpose. That there may be no doubt as to what it was, here is a copy of the document. We the undersigned, rate-payers of the City of Victoria, request you to call a Public Meeting for the purpose of discussing the advisability of appropriating out of the Corporate Fueds the amount specified in the following

Resolve !, That the sum of $500, to be supplemented by $100 more if necessary, be ap-propriated out of the Corporate revenue for the employing forthwith one or more compeent engineers to make a reconnoissance for railway from a point on the north side of Bute Inlet, on the Mainland, to the shore of toria and Esquimalt the Terminus of the Ca-nadian Pacific Railroad, and that a diagram and notes of said examination be placed in the hands of the members elected from this Island to the Common Council of the Colony. Such was the requisition signed by our citizens, When carried to His Worship, we ask, what can the electors think of or to MR. A. MUNRO, Hudson Bay Co's office a person who has thrust himself into the a person who has thrust himself into the position of Mayor in such a notoriously queer way, and who will refuse to call a meeting that he encouraged in getting no? We look upon his conduct as that of one who was prompt enough to use the most ricketty means to elevate his head above the common level; but who would not take the best means to serve the interests of this city. Let any one take the requisition as it stands, and they must, one and all, admit that the object was a good one—unquestionably one calculated to advance the paramount interests of this city and Esquimalt par-ticularly, and the whole east coast of this Island Such a noble undertaking deserved the most assiduous attention of the Mayor de fucto. The requisition did not make it binding to appropriate the money from corporate funds. It only money from corporate lunds. It only requested that the advisability of doing so might be discussed. If it had appeared on the discussion that the corporation had no authority to appropriate its lunds for such a purpose, it would have given the people an opportunity to devise some other means of getting authentic inforernor to send such an expedition, might have been adopted and the Executive would doubtless, out of deference to the popular wish, have taken the responsibility of sending it. An amendment might have been carried to raise a popular subscrip-tion for the purpose. Either of these courses would have been open in case the meeting had been called under the auspices of the civic authorities — the proper guardians of the interests of this city. But Mr. Robertson has deprived the citizens of the privilege of suggesting or endersing either one course or the other. About the two last suggestions that an exploring expedition be sent either by the Government or by popular subscription—there can be no doubt of its legality. Neither is their a shadow of doubt that the Corpor $4 and $5 per cord ation charter would warrant the expenditure, The Corporation is not prohibited by words in the charter for making any such appropriation. In the session of the Legislative Council in 1869 the Corporation had a bill drawn up by a solicitor at a cost of over one hundred dollars to provide for a supply of water. There is, however, no special provision under which funds can be appropriated for such a purpose, but the Corporation exercised its implied power to vote funds to meet such liabilities incurred in the interests of this city. If the present City were to run in debt $500 for surveys for bringing refer into

there the STANDARD at the proper time apparent to every one, that there and place will be promptly remedied on application at the Publication Office, next door to the Bank of British Columbia, Government will authorise such necessary acts, and a popular sanction that justifies the expenditure.

INPALLIBILITY.-According to the London GOVERNMENTSTREET Tablet, among the prelates at the Ecumenical Council who only gave a qualified assent to the dogma of the infallibility of the Pope we observe the name of Right Rev. Bishop Demers of this city. The Bishops of Oregon, Monterey, Savannah and New York voted the same as Bishop Demers. There were eighty-eight others Bishops who voted unqualifiedly against the dogma. Less than half of the total number invited to the Council voted for the many absented themselves designedly.

They footed up a plumper against the silent candidate. Who knows but they were perhaps overlooking a Von Moltke in had no inducements save in their own

The distinguished candidate who represented the 'conservative' interests, (shall I call them?,) was present the greater part of the time encouraging or thanking his adherents, bowing to them, and laying his hand on his heart in a truly touching way. I asked some of the 'conserva tives' or "Time o'nights" as they were nick-named, this opinion of the candidate they upheld. "How could be speak," said they when he had nothing in his head to they "when he had nothing in his bead to speak about? He would get in anyhow. He was the independent candidate, could vote either way as circumstances required" would get in any how!" Was an honest man; said nothing because he meant nothing and would not promise what he could not perform; would get in anyhow!" Cheers "Would get in any how!!!" Some on the phreyito, perchance a reinforcement, but alas !--but let him speak for himself. "Well G. are you going to vote for Humphreys! "No," says he "I must keep on the blind side of the toll-collector" " and what in the name of common sense has he to do with politics?" Darn him! he can annoy us packers considerably if we don't vote right !"

A BOAD AGENT ON GAMMON. All this time Spence, who has charge road from Clinton to Soda creek was won-derfully busy canvassing and trying to con-vince others, and to persuade himself that he had nothing earthly to do with the govern-ment. Did not, could not, pull with the officials, was a disinterested party, free to vote if he chose, and choose to vote he did curiously enough for Tynon, who by the merest accident happened to be a great riend of his. Would be analyse for us the meaning of the word "gammon?" Spence is a man of tact and ability, who would never have thrown himself into the breach, a forelorn hope, were not the Government deeply concerned in the result of this election.

POLITICAL ALCHEMIST. You have heard of F. Of course you have; the great I am of these parts yelept Doctor Everyone knows F. the great politico-chemico-mercantile-trading alchemist. He compounded the Tynon medicine, bottled it and corked it tight, labelled, ticketed and despatched it, advised it and ordered it as an astringent for the body politic. But strange to say it had quite a different and unexpected effect. It produced a double reaction; it proved simultaneously a strong eme tic and a violent purgative. Despite philosophers stone, a well filled purse, he finds himself but a quack while administer ing political medicine and incapable of taking a true and accurate diagnosis of political Cuss 'em." A most laughable figure was that of a modern provincial Falstaff, who, with high-sounding words and empty meaning, was constantly swooping down upon unoffending Humphreyites. Somehow he scarcely ever unborsed his adversaries, but would himself unhorsed his adversaries, but would himself conveniently slide off his hobby-horse (Tynon) when too closely pressed, and sink below the range of shot. To him the contest was a battle of Shrewsbury.

POLL CLOSED. The Poll closed at 4 o'clock, p. m., when the votes stood 36 for Tynon and 19 for Hum-phreys. Of the former 14 were from actual settlers and independent votes, the remaining 22 were influenced, or doubtful to say the good conscience. Conscience on the other side had a merry time of it with staging, whiskey and meals free; the approval of the monied class and the favor of the Govern-ment representatives, both of whom could advance or retard, reward or punish refractory voters.

Mr. Humphreys can certainly congraturate himself on being upheld by independent votes, and on winning by fair play against strong inducements, pressure and intimidation. In him the cause of the people and of free institutions has gained a great victory, and this stone has been laid in building a constitutional regime. The first delicate constitutional regime.
